ATTENTION Notice To Readers
While work-at-home advertising is often legitimate, we advise readers to fully investigate the background of any company before paying a fee. If an offer sounds "too good to be true", it probably is. Proceed with caution if you are asked to send money or call a "900" number. All numbers prefixed with "900" are charged to the caller on a per minute or per call basis. For further information contact the Better Business Bureau in Massachusetts at 508-652-4800 or www.bosbbb.org. Or reach The Federal Trade Commission toll free at 1-888-FTC-HELP for free information and consumer tips.
